North Easton, Mass. September 24th., 1923.

My dear Mr. Lane: I should have asked you when you wish to have the sketch of Goodale's life handed in. As I informed you, in my letter written a few days ago, I have been waiting for the sketch prepared for the Harvard Graduates' Magazine by Prof. Jackson.
My sketch was finished some time ago and simply needs to be typed.

Yours sincerely,

Oakes Ames.
